Story County Board of Supervisors handed out a resolutions form to be completed by each town. Board of Supervisor Linda Murken offered her assistance for anything we may need. Other towns offered ideas for fundraisers: letters to local businesses, Christmas cards, jail break, chili cook-off, pie sale, school tours, placemats, t-shirts, etc.

New Business

- Maland Home
 - Double garage needs painted – will wait until Spring
 - Small shed behind the single car garage – removal – building is in bad shape. Jason Murphy has offered to take it down at no cost and take the materials to the Boone dump. Jason is offering his services at no cost, and HHS will pay the cost to take it to the dump.
- Nord-Kalsem Shelter
 - Rock – engraving has been completed. Much thanks to LeRoy Cronk for donating the rock and assisting with the engraving project.
 - Siding – starts tomorrow. The siding will be white.

Other Business

- Maland Home lawn received the fall treatment today
- C&K Heating & Cooling completed the fall service for the Maland Home boiler
- Janet has completed most of the raking at the Maland Home and weeding. Help is needed in picking up sticks.
- Arlene Wee passed away. The mannequins have been purchased for the Norwegian outfits and building the display case is in motion.
- The two buildings that the Huxley Cleaners were in were demolished last week. The members had a great discussion of all the businesses that have been in those two buildings over the years.

Next HHS Meeting: November 25, 2019 6:00 pm, Huxley City Council Chambers

MOTION made by Delila Roberts, SECONDED by Jolene Lettow to adjourn meeting at 6:30 pm

Respectfully submitted,
Janet Stoll, HHS Secretary
