Discussion followed regarding the open house plans for the Maland House. It was also decided to pull the current signage from the front yard. Appropriate signage will be secured for the house designating it as a historical site. Assignments were discussed for securing items necessary for the Maland House event. Hal Davis has secured permission from the City for the event. The invitation to our membership will appear in our next newsletter.	Maland House Event
The items for the newsletter are ready for editing. The newsletter will be mailed out early in September.	Newsletter
